ARTICLE 9

FEE WAIVER

- 9.1 Pursuant to Executive Order 611, campus Presidents or their designees may waive the State University Fee for individual students who are enrolled in a California State University graduate program as classified or conditionally classified graduate students and who are employed by the California State University as Graduate Assistants (Class Code 2355) or Teaching Associates (Class Code 2353 or 2354). This Executive Order shall not be subject to Article 10 (Grievance Procedure).
- 9.2 The University will continue to provide fee waivers that were in effect as of January 1, 2021. The California State University and UAW will jointly produce a list of program fee waivers in Appendix X. Campus Presidents are encouraged to extend the benefit of fee waivers to all Graduate Assistants and Teaching Associates to further diversity and equity goals and reduce costs for graduate Academic Student Employees.
